

Dream Jar

I had a crazy dream where I was on a vip plane and the people were going to New York. I was on a secret mission to find the ninka turtles. I had a weapon called a Spike and jumped into a man hole cover and brqv e ninka turtles were right in front of me. "Run" said Leonardo but they led me right to there iqik we had a fight and I won and became friends.

A good opening and an exciting dream well done. 11/11/15
