Literacy	Take a look at this WAGOLL of a formal letter of complaint. Using highlighters or colouring pencils can you highlight and identify features of a formal letter that you will need to use.	Have a think about what you would like to learn about over the next few weeks... Why do you want to learn these things? How will they help you progress?	Begin to plan your letter. Create a 20-word vocabulary bank that you will aim to use. Research your start and endings of the letter. Plan what each paragraph will say. What will you include in the opening and closing paragraph?	Today we would like you to write your letter. Remember, the layout of a formal letter is vitally important, the vocabulary you use and how you introduce and explain your ideas. Remember to include reasons for your suggestions, we want to know why you want to learn these things and how they will help you in the future.	Fun Task Using your letter from yesterday, can you turn it into a speech. Your speech should be directed to your schoolteachers, explaining what you want to learn and why? Pretend you are a politician. like Boris Johnson and put your argument out there!
