

Travelling the World workshop with Creative Workshops

Learning about life in other countries through their food, clothes and artefacts.

We thought about why people move from country to country.

We learnt about slavery and also about refugees and people who emigrate to find work

