

We held a Sponsored Reading week to raise money for Reading for Good—a charity providing books and storytellers for children in hospital

We read for an amazing 6000 hours and raised over £1000

We came to school dressed as a book character..

