

Pupil Complaints Leaflet

As a pupil you can make a complaint about any matter concerning your school. By law your school must have a procedure for dealing with complaints from many people including parents and pupils.

Where to find the Complaints Procedure

If you want to make a complaint ask a member of staff for a copy of your school's complaints procedure. It will explain how you go about making your complaint. You can also ask the person named in the procedure as a contact point to find someone to help you make your complaint and guide you through the process.

Some things you could complain about are:

- an event – such as a school trip
- anything about your school life – such as homework, school uniform
- school services – such as school meals or the school bus service
- the behaviour of an individual(s) – for example another pupil or member of staff

- something that affects you as a pupil – such as bullying
- something that has happened outside school but which is connected to the school – such as the behaviour of pupils on a school bus or in the street.

Privacy

All complaints will be kept private. This means that normally it will not be discussed with anyone without your consent. However there are some circumstances where a complaint has to be shared with other people, especially if it means you or another child is in danger of being hurt. If this is the case this will be explained to you.

Making a complaint

When you make a complaint

- everything you say will be listened to,
- you will be asked questions to make things clear,
- you will be dealt with fairly,
- your parents/guardian/carers will not be told you have made a complaint without your agreement,
- your complaint will follow the procedure your school has in place with your agreement,
- you will be allowed to have someone with you to help if you wish. This could be a parent, friend, relative or someone else,
- you will be told how your complaint is progressing,
- you will be told the outcome and given a letter confirming this.

Things for you to consider when making a complaint

- Is your complaint about something which affects the whole school or a group of pupils? Could you ask the School Council to consider it?
- Could you solve the problem in any other way by talking to your class teacher, form tutor or head of year, or someone else in school.
- If you decide to ask the school council or an individual member of staff to take up the matter but you are not satisfied with the results you can still use the school's complaints procedure.

Other involvement of pupils

You could be:

- A pupil who is being complained about, or
- a pupil who has seen something happening that is being complained about.

In these situations:

- everything you say will be listened to,
- you will be asked questions to make things clear,
- you will be dealt with fairly,
- you will be allowed to have someone with you to help if you wish – a parent, friend, relative or someone else.
