

The cost of a Penalty Notice

If a notice is required the parent will be given a 15 day warning. During this period they will have the opportunity to provide evidence which demonstrates why a notice should not be issued. It will be for the school to determine if the evidence is accepted.

There are no limits to the number of formal warnings for a penalty notice that can be issued.

Legal Practicalities.

If the school attendance does not improve the penalty notice is £60 if paid within 28 days of receipt of the notice;

this rises to £120 if paid after 28 days but within 42 days of receipt;

if the penalty notice is not paid in full by the end of the 42 days the Local Authority must either prosecute for the offence or withdraw the notice*.

If the Penalty Notice is not paid in full then the Local Authority (LA) will consider prosecution for the original offence, which is 'failing to secure the child's regular attendance at school' under section 444 of the Education Act 1996.

 only in exceptional circumstances see Code of Conduct.*

Support with School Attendance

Please remember that if there are reasons why your child is missing school then keep the school informed.

If your child is off school then speak to the school as early as possible on the first day of their absence.

Your child is expected to be in school for 190 days an academic year with 175 days off due to weekends and school holidays.

Further information on the issuing of Penalty Notices can be obtained from your child's school or from the Early Intervention Officer, Pupil Support Service.

Penalty Notices

Welsh Government has instructed all local authorities to implement Penalty Notices under the Welsh Government Education (Penalty Notices) (Wales) Regulations 2013 from September 2014.

Pembrokeshire County Council believe that any absence from school, for whatever reason, is detrimental to a child's long term life opportunities, so should be avoided if at all possible.

A Penalty Notice is a method of intervention with the aim of seeking to secure an improvement in the child's attendance at school.

Appealing against a Penalty Notice

There is no statutory right of appeal under the Regulations, but where a parent contests the issuing of a Penalty Notice they can contact the Pupil Support Service.

Who can receive a Penalty Notice

A notice will be issued to each parent in respect of each child under section 576 of the Education Act 1996

Definition of a parent

- all natural parents, whether they are married or not
- any person who, although not a natural parent, has parental responsibility for a child or young person
- any person who, although not a natural parent, has care of a child or young person (having care of a child or young person means that a person with whom the child lives and who looks after the child, irrespective of what their relationship is with the child, is considered to be a parent in education law).

Why should my child attend school every day

100% attendance	Best chance of success!
95% attendance	Poor attendance will impact on learning.
90% attendance
85% attendance	Very poor attendance has a significant impact on learning.
80% attendance

A penalty notice can only be issued in cases of unauthorised absence.

A penalty notice may be issued:

The key criteria is as follows:

When a pupil has a minimum of 10 sessions (five school days) that have been lost due to unauthorised absences* during the current term and this brings the pupil's overall attendance to below 90% in the school year to date (these absences do not have to be consecutive).

*unauthorised absences include:-

- unauthorised non-attendance at school;
- unauthorised holidays in term-time; and
- unauthorised late arrival after registration has closed.
